Our hotels, apartments, and specialist accommodation throughout Spain and Portugal are small to medium sized, sometimes family-run, often centrally located and in historic buildings. They are chosen for their charm and style, hospitality and the relationship built with them over time. This means that we can personally recommend the accommodation that best suits you.

As a guide, the following hotel star ratings are an indication of the facilities and standard that you can expect.

★★★★ A standard property offering affordable, clean and comfortable rooms.
★★★★★ A superior hotel offering above average to very good facilities.

Creating your personalised itinerary to Santiago de Compostela has never been easier than with Spain & Portugal Travel Connection. You can opt to travel on foot or by bike with many durations and routes to take. Let your specialist know what you would like to discover and they will make your Camino a journey to remember.

The Camino de Santiago is the pilgrimage to the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela in Galicia in north-western Spain. It is difficult to define where exactly the Camino starts, as pilgrims used to start their journey from their own home and over the years, different Camino ways have emerged, but the most popular is the last 100km of the ‘French Way’.

Millions have travelled the complete ‘French Way’ trail taking approximately 36 days, from St Jean Pied de Port in France to Santiago de Compostela. Experience medieval villages, breathtaking landscapes like the Pyrenees, La Rioja and the vast spaces of the Meseta. Absorb the culture around you and the contrast between quaint little towns and lively cities such as Pamplona, Logrono, Burgos, Leon, Astorga, Ponferrada and of course, Santiago de Compostela.

Barcelona is a city that ‘bubbles’. A city that has transformed itself into one of the most dynamic and stylish capitals in the world. Its enviable position between the mountains and the sea ensures the many outdoor attractions can be enjoyed year round. Barcelona sizzles throughout the year, always on the cutting edge of architecture, food, fashion, style, music and good times. The art, with significant collections by Picasso and Miro, will delight enthusiasts and those new to art alike. The buildings, many the work of the eccentric genius Gaudi, will amaze you. The city has a number of distinct and vibrant districts, each with their own ambience, amazing attractions and museums.

Things to see and do in Barcelona

- The Sagrada Familia is arguably Gaudi’s best-known work and is often recognised as the symbol of Barcelona.
- Park Güell highlights Gaudi’s perfect harmony between nature and architecture. The number of visitors are limited daily, so we recommend that you purchase your tickets in advance.
- Montjuïc is a hill on the southwest side of Barcelona, overlooking the harbor and the city centre. Home to the 17th century Montjuïc Castle, the Palau Nacional, the Olympic Stadium, several museums, manicured gardens, ornate statues and fountains, as well as breathtaking panoramic views.
- With over 3,800 permanent works from different periods, the Picasso Museum showcases the bond between the Malaga-born artistic genius and the city of Barcelona.
- Casa Mila (La Pedrera) is another popular Gaudi designed building comprising two apartment blocks connected by interior courtyards with a shared façade.
- The Camp Nou is home to football giants FC Barcelona. A stadium tour includes an interactive modern museum and access to some of the most emblematic areas including the changing room and tunnel onto the pitch and the press box.
- The Cathedral of the Holy Cross and Saint Eulalia is a shining example of 14th century Catalan Gothic architecture.

Popular Neighbourhoods:

1. The Gothic Quarter is right in the centre of the city, with its famous Cathedral, a stunning example of Catalan Gothic architecture. Try to visit the quarter at sunset when the sun lights the façade in a brown-red glow.
2. La Rambla is perhaps the most popular and colourful street in Barcelona. It is a delightful place to visit. Near La Rambla, visit La Boqueria Markets, a real paradise for the senses, full of life, history and unquestionable architectural value.
3. Just a few steps off the Rambla, the district of El Raval includes the Palau Güell, one of the early works of Antoni Gaudi and one of the most magnificent buildings of the art nouveau style.
4. Make your way through the narrow streets of La Ribera district. At the top of El Born, you may stumble across the Palau de la Musica, a Heritage Site since 1997.
5. In the El Born district, we can find the Picasso Museum within an elegant palace. La Ciutadella Park invites you to relax, to go for long walks or rent a rowing boat on the lake.
6. Take advantage of Barcelona’s 4.5 kilometres of coastline and take a dip in the Mediterranean. Located in the traditional fishing district, La Barceloneta is one of Barcelona’s best-loved beaches. Port Vell, La Barceloneta and Port Olímpic are linked together and cover the port area.
7. Montjuïc, named after the Jewish cemetery, includes a pleasant large park with several attractions. Some buildings remain from the 1992 Olympics.
8. Eixample is a more modern part of Barcelona. It is here that the famous Sagrada Familia is found. Gracia, Tibidabo and Zona Alta are on the northern limits of Barcelona in a hilly area with 15 parks, including the most well-known Güell Park, which overlooks all of Barcelona.

Documents are to be exchanged locally to the relevant supplier. Supply of the Travel Services is made, and all itineraries, coupons and exchange orders (collectively ‘vouchers’) are issued to you, upon the supplier’s terms and conditions that are then in use, including as to the applicable laws, requirements and policies of any governmental authority related to, among others, visas, entry, exit or transfer requirements. 11. COMPLAINTS

We endeavour to ensure that the arrangements we have made for you are implemented as arranged. If you have any unresolved complaint, details should be lodged in writing (with supporting documentation, including efforts made with the supplier to resolve it) with your travel agent or directly with us within 30 days of your trip concluding.
